may lose their original placement. That means they may fall below or have other things pop up ahead of them. So if you're going to do passes once you start debate, realize that you take some risk in doing that. If the bill has not been debated, come talk to me if you need time to pass over them to prepare before you get started. And that's how we'll start. Obviously, as you get towards the end of session, those who are prepared and ready to go are those that'll be successful. So I'll put part of this out in a message. Senator Chambers, I will try to draw it for you so you don't have to read on the computer. I realize that some of the older senators have a little trouble reading the computers. So it will be out there. I'd be happy to answer any questions and, Mr. President, I appreciate the chance to do that this morning. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: You're welcome, Mr. Speaker. Senator Bromm would like to announce the following guests are seated under the north balcony, John Sohl and Dean Skokan. John is from Wahoo, Dean Skokan is from Fremont. If you would rise, we'd like to welcome you to the Nebraska Legislature. Mr. Clerk, items for the record.
